

PULPING/MILLING/SLICING

MODEL ABPS1000

APPLICATION: For virtually all fruit and vegetables the pulper sieve is suitable for a multitude of applications; peeling, slicing, destoning, deseeding etc. A complete variety of cutting and pulping blades and screens are available producing an extensive selection of pulps, purees, chips slices etc. The unit are available as individual units or used in combination to provide a complete chopping/peeling/destoning/pulping service.

CONSTRUCTION: Entirely stainless steel with all contacts parts manufactured from 316 grade stainless steel. The unit comes complete with feed chute, chopping blades, removable perforated screens (available in a variety of apertures to suit application), rotary paddle with heavy duty brushes and a pivoted collection chute to allow fruit pulp to be accurately dispensed into suitable holding tanks.

